

Steven Overbaugh Bio

Steven Overbaugh was born in Tulsa, Ok in 1993. His family attended Rhema Bible Church in Broken Arrow, Ok and were a part of Kenneth Hagin Ministries. Later his parents moved to Montana to start a church. Steven grew up in the church and in the ministry. As a young child, he knew he wanted to serve the Lord. He always knew he had the call of God on him with a desire to preach. He never pursued after any other dream but instead followed the Lord and his plan. He always said, "I'm a preacher."

Steven started preaching when he was 18 years old. Later in life the Lord dealt with him to go back to Oklahoma and attend Rhema Bible Training College, a training school for ministers. He graduated in 2016.

Growing up in a pastor's home all his life and with over 10 years of personal ministry experience, Steven is a blessing to all the people who sit under his ministry. Steven currently bases out of Missoula, MT and has a call to go throughout the United States, and Internationally, ministering to the Body of Christ in the local church. His ministry emphasis is on teaching from the Word about the Holy Ghost and His work in the life of every Believer and on the move of the Spirit in these last days.
